

Wood Purchase Agreement

KORENA LEGAL TEMPLATE LIBRARY

HOW TO USE Use this when KORENA (or a buyer) buys hardwood slabs from a seller. Fill in the parties, what is being sold, the price, and delivery, then both sides sign. Fill in the white boxes. Grey italic text is just an example of the format.

Starter template, not legal advice. Adapt it and have it checked by counsel before important or repeat deals.

1. Who is buying and selling

Field	Details
Seller (name, ID, address)	[e.g. Eichenhof Holz GmbH, DE123456789, Musterweg 4, 10115 Berlin]
Seller contact	[e.g. Anna Krause, anna@eichenhof.de, +49 30 123456]
Buyer (name, ID, address)	[e.g. "Martial Labs" Ltd. trading as KORENA, EIK 207453941, VAT BG207453941, 8A Yordan Badev Str., 1700 Sofia, Bulgaria]
Buyer contact	[e.g. Petar Ivanov, ops@korena.eu, +359 2 1234567]

2. What is being sold

Field	Details
Item	[e.g. live-edge slab, KORENA ID SLB-2026-0147]
Species	[e.g. European walnut / Juglans regia]
Dimensions	[e.g. 2,400 x 850 x 52 mm]
Quantity	[e.g. 1 slab]
Price (excl. VAT)	[e.g. EUR 1,150]

If you are buying more than one slab, list each one in the table at the end and write "see line items" here.

3. Price and payment

Field	Details
Total price	[e.g. EUR 1,150 plus VAT, reverse charge]
Payment due	[e.g. within 14 days of invoice]
Pay by	[e.g. bank transfer]
Seller bank details	[e.g. IBAN DE00 0000 0000 0000, BIC ABCDDEFF]

4. Delivery, risk, and ownership

Field	Details
How it is delivered	[e.g. carrier pickup from seller's yard]
Where	[e.g. KORENA warehouse, Sofia]
Target date	[e.g. 20 March 2026]

- Risk: the slab is at the buyer's risk once it is handed over to the buyer or to the first carrier.
- Ownership: the slab becomes the buyer's once the seller has received full payment.
- For sales to consumers, mandatory consumer-protection rules apply instead of the two lines above.

5. The seller's promises

The seller promises that:

1. The seller owns the slab and has the right to sell it, free of any other claims.
2. The species, size, condition, and origin details given to the buyer are accurate.
3. The slab was harvested, handled, and sold lawfully under the rules of the country it came from.
4. The seller has provided the origin and EUDR supporting documents listed in Section 6.
5. If something turns out to be wrong, the seller will fix it, replace the slab, or refund the buyer.

6. Origin and EUDR documents

The seller provides legal-origin evidence and EUDR due diligence information so the buyer can show where the wood came from. These are documents provided for review, not a guarantee of compliance. Tick what is attached:

- ☐ Invoice and proof the seller can sell (e.g. title or stock record).
- ☐ Legal-origin / harvest evidence (e.g. felling permit, transport ticket; for Bulgarian wood, the IAG transport ticket from <https://tickets.iag.bg>).
- ☐ EUDR due diligence information (e.g. species, country and region of origin, harvest date, geolocation or DDS reference where applicable).
- ☐ Photos / capture bundle for the slab.

7. If something is wrong

If the slab is not as described, the documents are missing or inconsistent, or the origin is unlawful, the buyer may reject or return the slab, ask for a fix or replacement, or withhold payment until it is sorted out. This does not waive any other legal rights the buyer has.

8. Governing law

This agreement is governed by Bulgarian law, and disputes go to the Sofia courts, unless the parties agree otherwise in writing. The parties will first try to resolve any dispute in good faith.
